

Union Bank & Trust
24010 Partnership Boulevard
Ruther Glen, VA 22546

Dear Borrower:

We understand that financial circumstances may change from time to time; creating hardships that affect your ability to meet your obligations. We are concerned about your recently missed mortgage payment and want to make you aware of options Union Bank & Trust has for hardship assistance.

We Are Here to Help—Call Us at 1.844.661.0093

Let us work with you to understand the issues affecting your mortgage payments. We'll explore what assistance may be available to you and discuss the forms, documentation and information we need to determine if you qualify for hardship assistance.

Options May Be Available

The right option for you depends on your individual circumstances. Review the Information on Avoiding Foreclosure page for an overview of these options. When you provide the required forms, documentation and information about your situation, we can determine if you qualify for any temporary or long-term relief options.

The sooner you respond, the quicker we can determine whether you qualify for an option to avoid foreclosure. Start by completing the attached Customer Hardship Assistance Package along with other required documents. Send the completed Customer Hardship Assistance Package to us via email, fax or mail as outlined in the Submission Avenues section of the Customer Hardship Assistance Package.

If you have any other mortgage loans secured by the same property, you should also contact the servicer(s) of those mortgage loans to discuss available loss mitigation options.

Additional Resources

For help exploring your options, the Federal government provides contact information for housing counselors, which you can access by contacting the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau at <http://www.consumerfinance.gov/find-a-housing-counselor>, the Department of Housing and Urban Development at <https://www.hudexchange.info/programs/housing-counseling>, or by calling 1-800-342-9647.

If you are a servicemember on "active duty" or "active service", or a spouse or dependant of such a servicemember you may be entitled to certain legal protections and debt relief pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC App. 504-597b) (SCRA). If you have questions as to whether you are entitled to legal protection under the SCRA, please go to <http://www.militaryonesource.mil/legal> or call 1-800-342-9647 to find out more information.

Sincerely,

Mortgage Assistance Center

Information on Avoiding Foreclosure

Learn more About Options to Avoid Foreclosure

The variety of options summarized below are available within the Mortgage Assistance Center. For example, you may be eligible to modify your mortgage that will lower your monthly payment to make it more affordable. Contact us to determine if you qualify.

If you have the funds available or are able to obtain the funds, you also have the option to prevent foreclosure by paying all delinquent amounts that you owe. Please call our Collections Department at 855-233-7041 to obtain the payment amount, delivery instructions and date that the payment would be due.

Don't delay, as failure to take action may result in commencement of foreclosure proceedings on your home.

OPTIONS TO REMAIN IN YOUR HOME	OVERVIEW	BENEFIT
Forbearance Plan	Payment forbearance temporarily suspends your monthly loan payment.	Payment forbearance allows you time to gain employment if unemployed or make additional income.
Rate/Term Modification	A rate/term modification modifies the mortgage rate and/or term.	A rate/term modification makes your payments more affordable or manageable.
Deferred Arrearage Modification	A deferred arrearage modification defers payments of your arrearages.	A deferred arrearage modification allows you to continue paying your mortgage by deferring the arrearage rather than capitalizing the arrearage. This will allow you to keep a similar payment to what you had prior to delinquency

OPTIONS TO LEAVE YOUR HOME	OVERVIEW	BENEFIT
Short Sale	When there is no equity in a home, a short sale option allows a sale for less than what is owed. Payment of the shortfall may be required.	A short sale allows you to leave your home without going through foreclosure.

We Want to Help

Take action to gain control of your housing situation. Call us at 1.844.661.0093, or email us at MortgageAssistanceCenter@BankatUnion.com to discuss available options as well as the documentation and information we need to determine if you qualify for assistance.

 ▶ For more information about Form 4506-T, visit www.irs.gov/form4506t.

OMB No. 1545-1872

Tip. Use Form 4506-T to order a transcript or other return information free of charge. See the product list below. You can quickly request transcripts by using our automated self-help service tools. Please visit us at IRS.gov and click on "Get a Tax Transcript..." under "Tools" or call 1-800-908-9946. If you need a copy of your return, use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Return. There is a fee to get a copy of your return.

1a Name shown on tax return. If a joint return, enter the name shown first. _____ _____	1b First social security number on tax return, individual taxpayer identification number, or employer identification number (see instructions) _____
2a If a joint return, enter spouse's name shown on tax return. _____ _____	2b Second social security number or individual taxpayer identification number if joint tax return _____
3 Current name, address (including apt., room, or suite no.), city, state, and ZIP code (see instructions) _____ _____ _____
4 Previous address shown on the last return filed if different from line 3 (see instructions) _____ _____
5 If the transcript or tax information is to be mailed to a third party (such as a mortgage company), enter the third party's name, address, and telephone number. _____ _____ _____

Caution: If the tax transcript is being mailed to a third party, ensure that you have filled in lines 6 through 9 before signing. Sign and date the form once you have filled in these lines. Completing these steps helps to protect your privacy. Once the IRS discloses your tax transcript to the third party listed on line 5, the IRS has no control over what the third party does with the information. If you would like to limit the third party's authority to disclose your transcript information, you can specify this limitation in your written agreement with the third party.

6 Transcript requested. Enter the tax form number here (1040, 1065, 1120, etc.) and check the appropriate box below. Enter only one tax form number per request. ▶ _____ a Return Transcript, which includes most of the line items of a tax return as filed with the IRS. A tax return transcript does not reflect changes made to the account after the return is processed. Transcripts are only available for the following returns: Form 1040 series, Form 1065, Form 1120, Form 1120-A, Form 1120-H, Form 1120-L, and Form 1120S. Return transcripts are available for the current year and returns processed during the prior 3 processing years. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

b Account Transcript, which contains information on the financial status of the account, such as payments made on the account, penalty assessments, and adjustments made by you or the IRS after the return was filed. Return information is limited to items such as tax liability and estimated tax payments. Account transcripts are available for most returns. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

c Record of Account, which provides the most detailed information as it is a combination of the Return Transcript and the Account Transcript. Available for current year and 3 prior tax years. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

7 Verification of Nonfiling, which is proof from the IRS that you did not file a return for the year. Current year requests are only available after June 15th. There are no availability restrictions on prior year requests. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

8 Form W-2, Form 1099 series, Form 1098 series, or Form 5498 series transcript. The IRS can provide a transcript that includes data from these information returns. State or local information is not included with the Form W-2 information. The IRS may be able to provide this transcript information for up to 10 years. Information for the current year is generally not available until the year after it is filed with the IRS. For example, W-2 information for 2011, filed in 2012, will likely not be available from the IRS until 2013. If you need W-2 information for retirement purposes, you should contact the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213. Most requests will be processed within 10 business days

Caution: If you need a copy of Form W-2 or Form 1099, you should first contact the payer. To get a copy of the Form W-2 or Form 1099 filed with your return, you must use Form 4506 and request a copy of your return, which includes all attachments.

9 Year or period requested. Enter the ending date of the year or period, using the mm/dd/yyyy format. If you are requesting more than four years or periods, you must attach another Form 4506-T. For requests relating to quarterly tax returns, such as Form 941, you must enter each quarter or tax period separately.

Future Developments

For the latest information about Form 4506-T and its instructions, go to www.irs.gov/form4506t. Information about any recent developments affecting Form 4506-T (such as legislation enacted after we released it) will be posted on that page.

General Instructions

Caution: Do not sign this form unless all applicable lines have been completed.

Purpose of form. Use Form 4506-T to request tax return information. You can also designate (on line 5) a third party to receive the information. Taxpayers using a tax year beginning in one calendar year and ending in the following year (fiscal tax year) must file Form 4506-T to request a return transcript.

Note: If you are unsure of which type of transcript you need, request the Record of Account, as it provides the most detailed information.

Tip. Use Form 4506, Request for Copy of Tax Return, to request copies of tax returns.

Automated transcript request. You can quickly request transcripts by using our automated self-help service tools. Please visit us at IRS.gov and click on "Get a Tax Transcript..." under "Tools" or call 1-800-908-9946.

Where to file. Mail or fax Form 4506-T to the address below for the state you lived in, or the state your business was in, when that return was filed. There are two address charts: one for individual transcripts (Form 1040 series and Form W-2) and one for all other transcripts.

If you are requesting more than one transcript or other product and the chart below shows two different addresses, send your request to the address based on the address of your most recent return.

Line 6. Enter only one tax form number per request.

Signature and date. Form 4506-T must be signed and dated by the taxpayer listed on line 1a or 2a. If you completed line 5 requesting the information be sent to a third party, the IRS must receive Form 4506-T within 120 days of the date signed by the taxpayer or it will be rejected. Ensure that all applicable lines are completed before signing.

You must check the box in the signature area to acknowledge you have the authority to sign and request the information. The form will not be processed and returned to you if the box is unchecked.

Individuals. Transcripts of jointly filed tax returns may be furnished to either spouse. Only one signature is required. Sign Form 4506-T exactly as your name appeared on the original return. If you changed your name, also sign your current name.

Corporations. Generally, Form 4506-T can be signed by: (1) an officer having legal authority to bind the corporation, (2) any person designated by the board of directors or other governing body, or (3) any officer or employee on written request by any principal officer and attested to by the secretary or other officer. A bona fide shareholder of record owning 1 percent or more of the outstanding stock of the corporation may submit a Form 4506-T but must provide documentation to support the requester's right to receive the information.

Partnerships. Generally, Form 4506-T can be signed by any person who was a member of the partnership during any part of the tax period requested on line 9.

All others. See section 6103(e) if the taxpayer has died, is insolvent, is a dissolved corporation, or if a trustee, guardian, executor, receiver, or administrator is acting for the taxpayer.

Note: If you are heir at law, next of kin, or beneficiary you must be able to establish a material interest in the estate or trust.

Documentation. For entities other than individuals, you must attach the authorization document. For example, this could be the letter from the principal officer authorizing an employee of the corporation or the letter testamentary authorizing an individual to act for an estate.

Signature by a representative. A representative can sign Form 4506-T for a taxpayer only if the taxpayer has specifically delegated this authority to the representative on Form 2848, line 5. The representative must attach Form 2848 showing the delegation to Form 4506-T.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to establish your right to gain access to the requested tax information under the Internal Revenue Code. We need this information to properly identify the tax information and respond to your request. You are not required to request any transcript; if you do request a transcript, sections 6103 and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information, including your SSN or EIN. If you do not provide this information, we may not be able to process your request. Providing false or fraudulent information may subject you to penalties.

Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.
